Policy on Authenticity of Student Work and Academic Integrity

The University policy on academic honesty has been adopted by the College of Education and Human Services (COEHS), which, in addition, publishes its own statement on plagiarism and establishes procedures and consequences. The MFT Program, holding the assumption that an atmosphere of safety, respect, and appreciation is only possible in an environment of honesty and trustworthiness, adheres to the policy on academic honesty espoused by the university and follows the procedures adopted by the COEHS. When students cheat, all students are adversely affected.

Honesty:

As part of its mission, Valdosta State University aims to accomplish the following:

Prepare our students to meet global opportunities and challenges through excellence in teaching and learning.

Expand the boundaries of current knowledge, and explore the practical applications of that knowledge, through excellence in scholarship and creative endeavors.

Promote the economic, cultural, and educational progress of our community and our region, through excellence in service outreach

VSU seeks to accomplish this mission in a dynamic, student-centered learning environment marked by a respect for diverse abilities ~~semms~~ ~~SOE~~ ~~W~~ ~~re~~

All academic and/or clinical work—including but not limited to assignments, exams, research, paper productions (reflections, term papers, research, literature reviews, etc.), projects, posters, journals—required by the faculty and submitted in partial or complete fulfillment of course requirements, must wholly reflect the student's own work.

Work that fails to properly cite sources and/or the submission of others' work while claiming it as one's own production will be considered plagiarized and will result in the faculty member filing an Academic Integrity Report (AIR). The result of this filing could result in a grade of D or F for the w
